Dear Mr. Köehler,

I am pleased to extend my warmest congratulations to you and the staff of Köehler Books upon receiving the Silver ADDY Award from District Three of the American Advertising Federation for the cover design of As Far As Birds Can Fly.

This honor is a testament to your hard work and creativity. Having spent the first twenty years of my career in business, I recognize the vital role that companies like yours play in our economy. Businesses drive job growth, innovation, and economic prosperity. You play a critical role in the success of your authors by offering traditional publishing services, marketing assistance, and design expertise. I commend you for your leadership.

I am excited to join with your clients, families, friends, and community in wishing you continued success in the years to come.

Sincerely,
